Recent advances in Khmer stonewares research

Wednesday February 17th 2015; 13:30PM
Conference room 605, Sirindhorn Anthropology Centre (SAC)
20, Borommarachachonnani Road, Taling Chan, 10170 Bangkok, Thailand

A seminar by the École française d'Extrême-Orient & Sirindhorn Anthropology Center
The seminar is open to all

Tentative program:
Welcome speech by Dr. Christophe POTTIER (EFEO – SAC Bangkok) – 5mn

Lecture 1 “Khmer stonewares : technology, typology, origins, and new data on the chronology” by Prof. Armand DESBAT, Emeritus (UMR5138 CNRS - Lyon 2 - MOM) - 20mn

Lecture 2 “Archaeometrical studies of Khmer stonewares : results of the on-going research” by Dr. Valérie THIRION-MERLE (UMR5138 CNRS - Lyon 2 - MOM) - 20mn

Lecture 3 “From production to consumption sites: the case of an hospital in Angkor and the hegemony of Buriram ceramics” by Dr. Christophe POTTIER (EFEO – SAC Bangkok) - 20mn

Q&A Open session of questions and answers

Participants:
Fine Arts Department, Department of Archaeology
Southeast Asian Ceramics Museum, Bangkok University, Rangsit Campus
SAC
EFEO